Dear W.P.: A girl 16 should be able to date on weekends only, never on a school night only, never on a school night unless it's a school affair. A curfew must be decided on, and you have a right to know where she is at all times. Every boy she dates should have first been introduced to one or both parents. Twenty minutes on the phone should be the absolute limit for one conversation, and there should never he more than two a night, and
